

AOSS Medical Supply is now celebrating over 30 years of continued business. We are a leading private medical supplier to the Plasma, Blood Bank, Hemodialysis, EMS, Dental, Surgical and Long-Term Care market segments. Based in Monroe, LA with a second distribution facility in Salt Lake City, UT; as well as, a future location in Austin, TX and the Northeast Coast. We are a medical supply distributor dedicated to taking care of our customers, their products; while also, delivering superior service. Our objective is not only to meet and exceed our customers' expectations, but to also provide our employees with a beyond exceptional and positive work environment with growth opportunities. AOSS believes everything first "starts from within."

A One Stop Shop

- For all your medical supply and facility needs...
- Over 20,000+ Different Products Medical Supplies & Equipment
- Janitorial & Paper Supplies Over 4,000+ Vendors & Manufacturers
- Personal "Certified" Customer Service Representatives
- FDA Compliant Kit Packing Facility – fully customizable kits
- AOSS Private Label Brand – own manufacturers in Malaysia, Indonesia, China, and more
- #1 FedEx Shipper in the state of Louisiana

Our Core Mission & Values

To be continuous in customer satisfaction, beyond what is expected. Our core objective is to meet and exceed our customers' requirements in manufacturing and distributing quality products, while delivering superior service. We continually strive for excellence in every aspect of our company!

One of AOSS Medical Supply's competitive strengths is our strict adherence to being an ethical company with integrity. Because AOSS holds a position of leadership in the industry, we want to ensure our dedication to maintaining the fundamental principles of fairness, honesty and common sense, which are the heart of the company's philosophy, values and corporate standards.

NuEdge

Our partnership with NuEdge allows us to pass cost-savings down to our end-users. One of our main priorities at AOSS is partnership. The relationships we have with our customers are vital to our business. They trust in our ability to provide cost-effective solutions without compromising on quality products. Our partnership with NuEdge has allowed us to better serve our customers by providing them with products that align with their unique facility needs which help their business run more efficiently.